THE CENSUS OF IRELAND,

AGRICULTURAL RETURNS.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY ARCHIBALD WILLIAM EARL OF EGLINTON AND WINTON,

LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

We, the Commissioners appointed by the Earl of Clarendon to take an account of the population of Ireland, in the year 1851, in conformity with the provisions of the Act 13 & 14 Vict., c. 44, beg to lay before your Excellency the accompanying Returns of Agricultural Produce for that year; the Agricultural inquiries having been added to those of the general Census, in conformity with his Excellency's desire.

We do not consider it necessary to enter into any details as to the manner in which these inquiries were conducted, as the forms used and the instructions issued to the Enumerators differed but little from those fully described by Major Larcom, in his able remarks on the Agricultural Returns of 1847; and to the same admirable bodies of men, the Constabulary and Metropolitan Police Forces of Ireland, are we indebted for the successful prosecution of the present Inquiries.

In making the following observations, the object is to draw attention to the important facts contained in these tables, whilst we abstain from expressing any opinion upon the causes by which such important changes have been produced.

PART I.—CROPS.

Number of Holdings.

From the accompanying tables it will appear that the total number of holdings has continued to decrease. The entire reduction between the years 1850 and 1851 is 20,156—which is, however, 2,767 less than that which took place between 1849 and 1850, although at the same time the Returns for 1851 exhibit an increase of 2,402 in the holdings under one acre.

This lessening ratio of decrease in the total number of holdings, year by year, is naturally to be expected; but as that circumstance, as well as the gradual increase during the last two years of the smaller class, is worthy of observation, the following figures are annexed:—

	Total Holdings.		Holdings not exceeding 1 Acre.		Holdings exceeding 1 Acre.
	Number.	Annual Decrease.	Number.	Annual Increase.	Number.	Annual Decrease.
1849, . .	651,145	—	31,989	—	619,156	—
1850, . .	628,222	22,923	35,326	3,337	592,896	26,260
1851, . .	608,066	20,156	37,728	2,402	570,338	22,558

The Census Commissioners of 1841 omitted from their returns all holdings not exceeding one acre; and owing to the difficulty of accurately ascertaining their exact number, and the fact that occupiers of this class are mingled to a considerable extent with persons not depending on agriculture for their support, more particularly in the vicinities of towns, their omission from the number of landholders has numerous advantages when treating of the changes in the division of land, which is now in progress in this country; yet their importance in other respects is so great that a report of this kind would be imperfect without some notice of them.

The following table exhibits the several classes of holdings in which the changes referred to have taken place between 1850 and 1851:—

Classes of Holdings.	No. of Holdings in 1850.	No. of Holdings in 1851.	Increase.	Decrease.
Number not exceeding 1 Acre, ...	35,326	37,728	2,402	.
Do. above 1 and not exceeding 5 Acres, . .	91,618	88,083	.	3,535
Do. „ 5 „ 15 „ . .	203,331	191,854	.	11,477
Do. „ 15 „ 30 „ . .	145,380	141,311	.	4,069
Do. „ 30 Acres, ...	152,567	149,090	.	3,477
	628,222	608,066	2,402	22,558

The foregoing table presents an apparent anomaly when compared with the Tillage Returns, the latter showing an increase in the total quantity of cultivated land, whereas the former shows a decrease in the number of farms of all classes.

Similar results were observed upon by Major Larcom in his remarks on the Agricultural Returns of 1850, and a higher classification than 30 acres suggested, in order to do away with the seeming contradiction, as it is evident that it arises from the increasing number of farms of a larger class—farms of 300, 400, and 500 acres absorbing many of those "above 30 acres," which was the maximum in former inquiries. An extended classification has therefore been adopted in these Returns, dividing the entire number of holdings above 30 acres in 1851, into the five following classes, viz.:—

The details of this classification by counties will be found in Table III. of the Summary Tables, p. xxiii. This being the first year in which an extended classification was adopted, no comparisons with former years, having reference to these classes, can at present be made. The original returns of the previous years have, however, been carefully preserved, and abstracts from them, according to this or any other classification, may hereafter be compiled, should the subject be considered of sufficient importance.

Extent of Crops.

The Census of 1841 did not enter upon the question of Tillage, there are therefore no data for a minute comparison under this head. According to the "Division of Land" as given at page 452 of the "Miscellaneous Tables" which accompany the Commissioners' Report, the quantity of arable land in Ireland in 1841, was 13,464,300 acres; the amount according to these Returns is now 14,802,581, showing that the extent of cultivated land has been increased by 1,338,281 acres during the last ten years; and from 1847 (the first year in which the extent of tillage was recorded,) to 1851 the quantity of land under crops has been also extended from 5,238,575 to 5,858,951, thus showing an increase of 620,376 acres. This increase will be found to be spread over every county in Ireland, except Limerick, in which the extent under crops in 1851 is 975 acres less than it was in 1847.

The next table shows the increase per cent. on the extent under crops in each county between 1847 and 1851, arranged in the order of the increase.

The changes which have taken place in the relative proportions of one class of crop to another within the last four years also indicate an important alteration in the management of farms in Ireland. In the year 1847 the proportion of cereal to green crops was, in acres—four six-tenths to one; whilst in 1851 the proportion was two three-tenths to one. The following table shows the great increase in the extent of flax cultivated in each province in Ireland:—

The Returns of this year were incomplete, owing to the disturbed state of some counties.

The following table shows the proportion which each description of crop, as cultivated in 1851, bore to the 100 acres on each class of holding.

It may be desirable, for the assistance of some readers, to give a short explanation of the construction of this table. It will be seen that on the class of farms above "5 to 15 acres" in extent—for every 100 acres of tilled land in this class, there were grown $6\frac{2}{10}$ acres of wheat, $44\frac{1}{10}$ of oats, $6\frac{1}{10}$ of barley, bere, and rye, $\frac{3}{10}$ of beans and peas, $20\frac{3}{10}$ of potatoes, $5\frac{6}{10}$ of turnips, $1\frac{6}{10}$ of other green crops, $3\frac{5}{10}$ of flax, and $11\frac{5}{10}$ of meadow, making together 100 acres.

The distinguishing features of this table are the diminishing proportions which oats, barley, potatoes, and flax, as grown upon the larger farms, bear to the proportions of these crops on the smaller farms; the difference is supplied by increased quantities of turnips, "other green crops," and meadow. Wheat was most extensively grown upon farms from 50 to 100 acres; but the largest proportion of cereal crops ($57\frac{2}{10}$ per cent.) is shown to belong to farmers holding from 5 to 15 acres, though but little difference, in this respect, exists between the four classes above 5 up to 100 acres. The greatest extent of flax is grown upon holdings from 5 to 15, and from 15 to 30 acres.

The largest proportion of meadow ($45\frac{6}{10}$ per cent.) belongs to the class "above 500 acres;" on this class is also cultivated the greatest proportion of turnips, "other green crops," beans, and peas; but wheat and other hard grains, as also potatoes and flax, are cultivated to a comparatively limited extent.

The rate of produce of the wheat crop in 1851, though somewhat higher on the average than in 1850, is yet very low. Oats also show a slight improvement. The rates of produce of barley and bere exhibit little or no change; slight increases appear in rye, beans and peas, potatoes, turnips, and mangel wurzel. Rates of Produce.

uantity of roduce.

An estimate of the quantity of corn, beans, and peas grown annually in Ireland since 1847 has been made from the Returns, of which the following is an abstract:—

Crops.	1847.	1849.	1850.	1851.
Wheat (barrels of 20 stones),	4,916,599	3,641,198	2,604,164	2,508,963
Oats (do. of 14 stones),	18,433,390	15,738,073	16,546,098	17,232,874
Barley (do. of 16 stones),	2,489,330	2,441,176	2,346,374	2,482,992
Bere (do. do.),	423,978	496,037	477,011	442,752
Rye (do. of 20 stones),	102,273	164,877	143,142	157,537
Beans and Peas (bushels of 8 gallons),	675,649	1,436,202	1,591,669	1,283,610

The variety of measures in general use in Ireland, and of necessity adopted in these tables, renders the quantities unfit to be added together, until reduced to one common standard; the following table exhibits the total produce of the above crops, reduced to tons of 2,240 lbs. each:—

Years.	Tons of Produce.	Years.	Tons of Produce.
1847,	2,548,503	1850,	2,113,327
1849,	2,182,514	1851,	2,165,854

The succeeding table shows the total produce of potatoes and turnips, also given by tons:—

Years.	Potatoes.	Turnips.	Carrots and Parsnips.
	Tons.	Tons.	Tons.
1847,	2,048,195	5,760,616	(Not known.)
1849,	4,014,122	5,805,848	101,727
1850,	3,945,990	5,439,005	83,622
1851,	4,441,022	6,081,326	87,627

We have no means of computing the proportion of the above produce consumed as human food; yet the quantity, per head, produced in each county or Poor Law Union affords a tolerable criterion for judging of their present comparative capabilities.

The greatest quantity of cereal crops, in proportion to the inhabitants, was grown in Meath, Kildare, Wexford, Westmeath, Louth, and Kilkenny. The counties of Clare, Sligo, Galway, Leitrim, Mayo, and Kerry, show the lowest averages:—

		lbs.			lbs.
Highest.	Meath,—produce per head,	1,534	Lowest.	Clare,—produce per head,	620
	Kildare, do.,	1,420		Sligo, do.,	574
	Wexford, do.,	1,338		Galway, do.,	556
	Westmeath, do.,	1,210		Leitrim, do.,	540
	Louth, do.,	1,159		Mayo, do.,	507
	Kilkenny, do.,	1,094		Kerry, do.,	355

The undermentioned twenty Poor Law Unions have been selected to show which produce the largest proportion of cereal crops for each individual inhabitant, and those whose averages are the lowest:—

		lbs.			lbs.
Highest.	Athy,—produce per head,	1,731	Lowest.	Glenties,—produce per head,	294
	Downpatrick, do.,	1,677		Bantry, do.,	284
	Castletowndelvin, do.,	1,653		Newport, do.,	279
	Kells, do.,	1,613		Dingle, do.,	258
	Gorey, do.,	1,599		Galway, do.,	246
	Enniscorthy, do.,	1,582		Cahersiveen, do.,	226
	Ardee, do.,	1,581		Skull, do.,	217
	Navan, do.,	1,536		Clifden, do.,	216
	Dunshaughlin, do.,	1,527		Kenmare, do.,	196
	Balrothery, do.,	1,499		Castletown, {Co. Cork,} do.,	127

The following table gives the total quantity of corn, beans, and peas, grown in each Poor Law Union, in 1851; also the quantity of potatoes, and the proportions which each crop bears to the population. A similar table is given by counties. In the districts of Dublin, Belfast, Cork, Limerick, and Waterford, the population of these towns has been excluded from the calculation, but is included in the general totals:—

PART II.—STOCK.

The Census Commissioners of 1841 having inquired as to the number of acres of arable, pasture, and waste land in every farm in Ireland, and having also ascertained the number of horses and mules, asses, cattle, sheep, pigs, and poultry, on each holding, in that year—the abstract of the returns published in their Report affords a valuable basis for comparison with those in 1851.

Subjoined is an abstract of the total amount of each description of stock in Ireland in 1841, and also from 1847 to 1851.*

This table shows a gradual diminution in the number of horses and mules, the decrease within the ten years being 32,803. Pigs, though greatly increased since 1847, have not yet reached the numbers shown in 1841, the deficiency as between that year and 1851 being 327,956. Goats were not enumerated in 1841, but their numbers have considerably increased since 1847. Poultry have also increased since 1847, but they are yet under the number in 1841 by 987,823. The number of horned cattle, in each period, shows a considerable augmentation; the increase within the ten years being 1,104,345.

The Census Commissioners of 1841 not only made an enumeration of the stock at that time in Ireland, but also, after inquiry, assumed an average rate per head for each description, viz.: horses and mules were valued at £8 each; asses at £1; horned cattle at £6 10*s.*; sheep at £1 2*s.*; pigs at £1 5*s.*; poultry at 6*d.* By this means they arrived at an approximation to the value of the entire stock in Ireland in 1841. There is every reason to think that were the inquiries upon this subject now repeated, horses and mules, cattle, sheep, and pigs would be estimated at higher rates; but as any alteration in these rates would disturb the comparison with previous years, it has been thought judicious to adhere to the prices adopted in 1841. A general view is thus afforded of the extent of the changes which have taken place since that year in this important branch of farming.

* The stock within the City of Dublin was not enumerated in the year 1847.

† The year 1848 is unavoidably incomplete.

The succeeding table shows the value of the stock in the possession of each class of stock-holders in 1851, according to the classification now first adopted :—

Classes of Holdings.	No. of Holdings.	Value of Stock.	Average Value per Holding.

do. above 500 Acres, ...	1,457	857,039	588 4 5

The five last classes in the foregoing table were in former years included under the one general head of "Holdings above 30 Acres."

In contrasting the number of holdings with the value of stock in the years 1841 and 1851, it appears, that although the number of holdings has diminished by 120,776, and the gross value of stock in the possession of land-holders has increased by £7,926,307, the land-holders in each class have on an average a less amount of stock on their farms respectively, than they had in 1841, as will be seen by the following table :—

Classes of Holdings.	1841.			1851.
	No. of Holdings.	Value of Stock.	Average Value per Holding.	No. of Holdings.	Value of Stock.	Average Value per Holding.
		£	£ s. d.		£	£ s. d.
From above 1 to 5 Acres,	310,375	3,065,529	9 17 6	88,083	590,913	6 14 2
„ 5 to 15 „ .	252,778	5,706,990	22 11 7	191,854	3,526,521	18 7 8
„ 15 to 30 „ .	79,338	3,683,864	46 8 7	141,311	5,415,643	38 6 6
„ 30 Acres, .	48,623	6,943,460	142 16 1	149,090	17,793,073	119 6 11
TOTAL (Stock belonging to householders, and on holdings not exceeding one acre, being excluded), .	691,114	19,399,843	28 1 4	570,338	27,326,150	47 18 2

Thus showing that stock on the two smaller classes of holdings (i. e. from 1 to 5 and from 5 to 15 acres) has diminished more rapidly than the number of holdings, and that, although the stock on the two larger classes (i. e. from 15 to 30, and above 30 acres) is increased, the increase is not in proportion to the greater number of large holdings; and that a further augmentation of the stock, to an extent of £5,700,000 in value, is required to make the average amount of stock on each class of holdings in 1851 equal to what it was on the same classes in 1841.

The demand for this increase necessarily arises from the enlarged size of farms;—thus if a farm of five acres, with its stock, be added to one of 15 acres with its stock—as existing in 1841—the latter becomes a holding of a higher class, but with a stock value for only (£9 17*s.* 6*d.* + £22 11*s.* 7*d.*) £32 9*s.* 1*d.*, being £14 under the average value per holding of the class to which it has been raised by the union of the two farms.

In the forms for "Stock" issued in 1851 a column for the number of deer was, for the first time, introduced. By the returns received, it appears that there were then in Ireland 17,175 of these animals, their distribution by provinces being :—

In Leinster, ...	4,857
„ Munster, ...	7,008
„ Ulster, ...	3,380
„ Connaught, ...	1,930
Total No. of Deer in Ireland in 1851, . .	17,175

The general tables of stock at page 623 show their distribution throughout the country by baronies and counties.

The publication of these Returns is later this year than usual, owing to the increased size of the present work, caused by the more detailed classification of farms, and also to Part I., containing the Townland Census of Ireland, being in the press at the same time. The latter work, which has been published by Counties, and is comprised in four Volumes—being one for each Province—is now printed and presented to both Houses of Parliament.

In conclusion we beg to observe that upon reviewing the circumstances of the country, in connexion with the foregoing tables, and considering the painful vicissitudes through which it has lately passed,—caused by the annual blight of the potato crop since 1845,—the diminished rates of produce of the grain crops for some years,—and the number of cattle which have died of diseases hitherto comparatively unknown in this country,—we cannot but congratulate your Excellency upon the evidence which these tables afford of the steadily increasing amount of Farm Stock, and the generally improved condition of Agriculture in Ireland.

We have the honor to be

Your Excellency's

Very faithful Servants,
